

Applications are invited for the well-known position for the year of 'Project Assistant' under a 100% funded project.

Project title: "Enhancing the impact of universities high performance and growth areas on economic development in the province of Buenos Aires (Argentina)"

Project period: 01/01/2020

Project position and conditions: Project Assistant (2)

Remuneration: 40000 per month (unconditional)

Duration: Initial appointment for six months, renewable up to three years in satisfactory performance.

Eligibility criteria:

- 1) Position 1: 100% in any field of Biological Sciences with minimum 100 credits. One year working experience in scientific fielding and standard biochemical assays.
- 2) Position 2: 100% MSc. in Biochemistry with minimum 100 credits. Candidates must have experience in both cell systems, biochemistry, data analysis, tissue handling or laboratory conditions for the MSc. MSc. field must be very closely apply.

Age limit: Maximum 35 years (upper age limit reducible up to 5 years for women and married citizens) reducible to 30 (50% rule).

Date of interview: 07 May 2019

General instructions:

- 1) Candidates should bring a copy of the CV, all the original documents (certificates), relevant documents in the time of interview.
- 2) Applicants should note that the appointment is for work on a part-time basis and there is no right for obtaining any regular appointment in the university.
- 3) Please note that the CV must be submitted by attending the interview.

Candidates desiring to appear for the interview should apply through email along with their CV to below: 07 May 2019 to the Principal Investigator (principal@bioconic.org)

The well-known interview will be held at the Science Building (Department of Life Sciences) on 07 May 2019 at 10:00.