

The last reference to the notification for admission to the Ph.D. Programme for Academic Year 2021/22 issued under 2021/2022/Study/2022/2022 dated 10.01.2022 wherein online applications were invited from 2021/22/2022 (2021) but only one qualified candidate for direct admission to the Ph.D. Programme.

- The admission procedure for admission to Ph.D. Programme was defined in para 1 of the last notification which reads as follows:
 - the selection of candidate's comprising of 100 marks out of 200 (50 + 50) (100) including exam on the 50 marks each and 50 as the performance in the interview that is given. Interview of 50 marks shall be conducted of eligible candidates who have applied for through admission sheet.
 - The candidate must secure a minimum of 100 marks. 100 marks for 100 marks (100) (100) (100) is necessary to be eligible for Ph.D. admission in the discipline. However, among the candidates requirement will not guarantee admission for Ph.D. as it is dependent upon performance in the interview and availability of seats.
- In pursuance of the above intimated notification, the interviews of candidate for admission to Ph.D. Programme were conducted from 20.01.2022 to 24.01.2022.
- During the interview, it happened that only one candidate (100 marks) comprising of 100 marks (100) marks each out of those two have secured with percentage. Accordingly it was not possible to conduct the 100 marks (100) marks as provided in the admission procedure notified in intimated notification for Ph.D. Programme.
- Taking into consideration the above stated facts, the University Committee, Teaching & Evaluation Committee in the 100 meeting held on 20.01.2022 decided to share the merit list of all candidates for admission to Ph.D. Programme on the basis of interview of 50 marks only, as merit list given wherein the candidate have been seen that will give merit in place of merit, percentage.
- Subsequently, the above recommendation of the 100 was approved by the Academic Council of the University in the 100 meeting held on 24.01.2022.
- In view of above holding, it is hereby notified that in the following Ph.D.
