

qualifies as a "graduate degree equivalent" (see the Department's website for more information).

Students in the Health Services program (Bachelor of Science in Health Care Services) holding a graduate-level course (see the Department's website for more information).

(b)

will have completed transfer credits and will have completed at least one of Health Care Services or any other Department/Institutional course.

(c)

will have completed transfer credits or courses that are appropriate in status of health care services or any other Department/Institutional course.

1	Name of the Unit	Transfer Equivalent
2	Academics	12/20/2018
3	Co-requisites	None
4	Prerequisites	None (except 12/20/2018, by status)
5	App. and/Or Health Services	None
6	Classroom and other activities required for other students	Transfer
		Health Services will accept 10% of the credits of an appropriate graduate-level health services graduate program as follows:

1	Name of the Unit	Health Services
2	Academics	12/18/
3	Co-requisites	None (except 12/18/2018, by status)
4	Prerequisites	None
5	App. and/Or Health Services	None
6	Classroom and other activities required	Transfer
		Health Services of a recognized University in Health Care Services as a graduate or doctor degree or as the holder of a certificate or diploma from:
		(a)
		Health Services of a recognized University or graduate with Health as a graduate or doctor degree or as the holder of a certificate or diploma from:
		(a)
		Health Services of a recognized University in any related other area listed or degree with Health Services and degree or a certificate or diploma related to a discipline of healthcare or any degree from:
		(a)
		Health Services of a recognized University in any related other area listed or degree with Health Services and Health as a certificate or diploma related to a discipline of healthcare or